

Junction Farm Marking Checklist

General Marking

- Full Date (short date in Maths) and L.O must be visible on all work.
- Use a green highlighter to highlight success.
- Use a pink highlighter to underline words to be upgraded.
- Use a pink highlighter to highlight incorrect spellings up to a maximum of 3.
- Use a pink highlighter to highlight incorrect grammar and punctuation up to a maximum of 3.
- In Maths highlight up to 3 errors in pink.
- In Maths the pre-learning task should be graded E D or S. Post learning task E D S or M.
- In Maths after the post-learning task there should be a comment addressing the child's progress.
- Plan time in the next session for children to respond to any errors highlighted in pink.
- If appropriate make comment on the skills used within a piece of work (Not generic comments - good effort, well done...).
- Any written feedback should be in school policy joined up handwriting.
- Mistakes in pencil can be rubbed out.
- Mistakes in pen should be crossed out with a clear, single straight line, not scribbled.
- Teachers write in green.
- Children respond in red.

Marking Code

Code	Explanation
✓	Positive/correct answers
*	An incorrect answer in Maths
^	Omitted words
V	Verbal feedback given
I	Independent work
S	Supported (guidance given while working).

Focussed Marking - Big Write

- 3x differentiated, numbered success criteria
- Highlight one example of each success criteria (in green highlighter).
- Number highlighting to match success criteria number.
- Highlight the success criteria at the top of the page when met.
- Use a pink highlighter a maximum of 5 times to highlight obvious errors.
- Give a positive, specific comment linked to success criteria.
- Give a response task linked to success criteria (either to address a missed criteria or to extend learning further).
- Plan time in the next session for children to complete response task and any errors highlighted in pink.
- Acknowledge response task with initials.
- No other corrections needed on this piece work.